

March Reading Calendar

Designed by Miss Robson

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
1 Ask someone in your family about their favourite books	2 Read a book about somewhere you'd like to travel after lockdown	3 Draw your favourite book character	4 - World Book Day You choose! Read anything you'd like to!	5 - British Science Week starts today Read a non-fiction book	6 Read in the garden or a park	7 Read a story at breakfast time
8 Find out a fact about your favourite author	9 Design a bookmark	10 Read a comic or a magazine	11 Have a go at Miss Robson's Emoji Book Quiz!	12 Recommend a book to a friend over Zoom	13 Make a cosy den and read in it!	14 Read in the bath - be careful!
15 Write a review of the last book you read	16 Read a story or article about someone you find inspiring	17 - St Patrick's Day Read a book with a green cover	18 Listen to an audio book	19 - Red Nose Day Read the funniest joke you know to a friend	20 Create an outfit or costume based on your favourite book character	21 - World Poetry Day Read a poem
22 Read to your pet or teddy bear	23 Read a book by an author you've never tried before	24 Ask a friend, someone in your family, or your teacher what they're currently reading	25 Illustrate a new cover for your favourite book	26 Read to someone on Zoom - a friend, grandparent, anyone!	27 Read a recipe and then help make it	28 Read in your pyjamas
29 Read a book that will make you laugh!	30 Draw the book character you would most like to meet	31 Write a short story about a child who read for a whole month!	To celebrate World Book Day, we're making March the month of reading! See how many of these reading activities you can complete this month. If you'd like, email in photos of you completing any of the activities - Miss Robson would love to display them in the library!

