

My Little Lockdown Positivity Book

Designed by Miss Robson

If you need a little boost of positivity whilst we're in Lockdown, have a go at making this mini book filled with positive words. You can put it in your pocket to remind you that you're being a super hero by staying safe at home!

these are the book pages

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Cut along the dotted blue line. These are the inside pages of your book.
2. Neatly fold the pages on the purple lines into a concertina zig zag shape.
3. Carefully cut out the book cover and fold to make the spine of the book.
4. Put glue on the two blank pages and stick one to each inside of the cover.
5. Well done, you've made your book! Now you can read it any time you're feeling blue about being in lockdown, or you might even give it to a friend.

this is the book cover

