Year 5 Grammar Homework

Friday 19th May 2024

Today we are looking at parenthesis. Parenthesis is an extra piece of information inserted into your sentence, without which your sentence would still make sense.

You can use commas, dashes or brackets for parenthesis.

Examples:

The children, who were very clever, completed all their grammar homework.

Mr Barr is great at sports - and very tall - so he is good at basketball.

Task one:

Insert brackets, dashes or commas into the sentences below.

1. Miss Purnell who loves chocolate is choosing what to have for pudding.
2. I am going to visit James my brother after school today.
3. The cave was dark and gloomy it was very scary.
4. Miss Evans can't wait to go to the cat sanctuary she loves cats.

Task two:

Use brackets, dashes or commas to insert information into the sentences below:

1. Jack went to see a film after school.

2. I watched a beautiful sunset.
